

Richard B. Vincent
Chief Executive Officer
LRS Systems, Las Vegas, Nevada

Mr. Vincent is the owner and CEO of LRS Systems located in Las Vegas, Nevada. This is an Internet Company that provides court-mandated on-line psycho-educational programs for problems such as DUI School, Anger Management and Impulse Control, AIDS Awareness, Domestic Violence, Drug and Alcohol and Victim's Impact Panel (VIP). The company also provides an on-line Teen Driving Course and an SAT prep course. LRS is a private, for profit Nevada based S Corporation. He previously served as recruiter for Vision Quest in Tucson, Arizona. Vision Quest is a private corporation that provides alternative treatment programs for hard-core delinquent offenders. Mr. Vincent was involved with staff training; directly responsible for staff recruitment and hiring; traveled nationally and conducted face-to-face interviews with potential childcare workers.

Mr. Vincent was also Vice President and COO for Comprehensive Care in Costa Mesa, California. He was charged with the operation of eight (8) free-standing JCHO Psychiatric and Chemical Dependency Hospitals for Adults and Children. During his tenure he also served as Administrator of three, free-standing hospitals.

Mr. Vincent served as the Director of Children, Youth and Families for the State of Nevada.

This position required supervision of five Bureaus including: Institutions for Youthful Offenders, State Parole, Child Care Facilities, Pre-schools, Northern and Southern Nevada Foster Homes and State Probation Subsidy Programs. During my tenure Nevada was qualified with OJJDP. He began his career working in the Juvenile Justice Field as a Youth Counselor and Probation Officer, after working all departments in Youth Correctional.

Deborah Schumacher
Judge
Second Judicial District Court
State of Nevada
Washoe County

Judge Schumacher has participated in numerous professional efforts to improve the lives of children and families in our community, including the Nevada Children's Justice Task Force, the task force on the Professionalization of Foster Care in Nevada, and the Statewide Adoption Advisory Committee. During 1998-99, she was an ad hoc member of ACR 57, the interim legislative subcommittee which examined juvenile delinquency laws. Judge Schumacher is the "lead judge" of the District's "Model Court" project in the area of improving the handling of foster care cases, under the aegis of the National Council of Juvenile and Family Court Judges.

Judge Schumacher initiated and currently presides over the District's Juvenile Drug Court.

Judge Schumacher has been on the faculty for continuing education sponsored by the National Judicial College, the National District Attorney's Association, Nevada Trial Lawyers, the National Council of Juvenile and Family Court Judges, the State Bar of Nevada, and Northern Nevada Women Lawyer's Association. Judge Schumacher also helps train Court Appointed Special Advocates.

Judge Schumacher is a board member of Friends of the Washoe County Library, and is married with three children